Date of Issue: 09 February 2026

AMBER ENTERPRISES INDIA LIMITED

POLICY ON MATERIALITY OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND DEALING WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

1. Preamble

The Board of Directors (“Board”) of Amber Enterprises India Limited (“Company”) has adopted this Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and Dealing with Related Party Transactions (“Policy”), in compliance with the requirements of Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”) and Rules made thereunder (collectively known as the “Act”) and Regulation 23 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (“SEBI LODR Regulations”).

The Policy may be reviewed and amended from time to time as and when necessary or required as per specific requirement of the Act and SEBI LODR Regulations.

2. Objective

Related Party Transaction (“RPT”) has emerged as a critical area of attention in the ongoing corporate governance reforms in India. Such transactions may give rise to actual or perceived conflicts of interest, potentially compromising the Company’s and its shareholders’ best interests.

This Policy is designed to establish a transparent framework for the approval and disclosure of RPTs, ensuring that all dealings between the Company and its related parties are conducted in a manner that safeguards the interests of the Company and its stakeholders.

3. Definitions

- 3.1   “Audit Committee” means the Committee of Board of the Company constituted under provisions of Act and SEBI LODR Regulations.
- 3.2   “Arm’s length transaction” means a transaction between two Related Parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.
- 3.3   “Board” means Board of Directors of the Company.

Date of Issue: 09 February 2026

5. Identification of potential Related Party and Related Party Transactions

- The Related Parties and the RPTs of the Company shall be identified and ascertained in light of the definition of the Related Party and RPT.
- Every Director and KMP of the Company shall be responsible for providing a list of Related Parties to the Company.
- Each Director and KMP shall promptly notify the Company of any material interest that such person or relative of such person had, has or may have in any transaction with the company, by providing notice to the Board or Audit Committee of any potential RPT together with additional information about the RPT that the Board or Audit Committee may reasonably request.
- The Company prefers that such notices are given well in advance, so that all stakeholders have adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed RPT.
- The Company Secretary of the Company shall maintain a database of Company's Related Parties containing the names and other applicable details of individuals and the entities, identified on the basis of the information received and definition set forth in this Policy.

6. Standards for Review of Related Party Transaction

As appropriate for the circumstances, the Audit Committee or Board, as applicable, shall review and consider:

- The Related Party's interest in the RPT;
- The amount involved in the RPT;
- Whether the RPT was undertaken in the ordinary course of business of the Company;
- Whether the transaction with the Related Party is proposed to be, or was, entered on an arms' length basis;
- Whether the Company was notified about the RPT before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification would be allowed and be detrimental to the Company;
- Require public disclosure, if any; and
- Any other information regarding the RPT or the Related Party in the context of the proposed transaction that would be material to the Audit Committee/ Board/shareholders, as applicable in light of the circumstances of the particular RPT.

Amber Enterprises India Limited		Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and dealing with Related Party Transactions
Date of Issue: 09 February 2026

Upon the Industry Standards coming into effect, the Company shall furnish all requisite information as mandated under such Industry Standards, in the prescribed format. Such information shall be placed before the Audit Committee and, where required due to the exceeding of applicable materiality thresholds, shall subsequently be placed before the Shareholders for their review and approval of the proposed Related Party Transaction(s)..

The Audit Committee and/or the Board of Directors, as applicable, will carefully examine all relevant details and supporting documents pertaining to the proposed RPT, including the nature of the transaction, its terms and conditions, the rationale for entering into such transaction, and its potential impact on the Company and its stakeholders.

The Audit Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall approve or recommend the RPT to the Shareholders only after due consideration of all circumstances. Such approval or recommendation shall be granted if the Audit Committee or the Board is satisfied that the transaction is conducted on an arm's length basis, is fair and reasonable, serves the best interests of the Company, and fully complies with the provisions of the Act, the SEBI LODR Regulations.

7. Approval of Related Party Transactions

7.1 Audit Committee

All Related Party Transactions, including any subsequent material modifications thereto, except those specifically exempted under the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company and, where required due to the exceeding of applicable materiality thresholds, shall require Shareholders approval.

- a. Only the Independent Directors, being members of Audit Committee shall approve a RPT. Any member of the Audit Committee who has potential interest in any RPT shall not be present at the meeting during the discussions on the subject matter and shall recuse himself or herself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the RPT.
- b. Remuneration and sitting fees paid by the Company or its subsidiary to its director, key managerial personnel or senior management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the Audit Committee of the Company, provided that the same is not a material related party transaction.

Amber Enterprises India Limited		Policy on Materiality of Related Party Transactions and dealing with Related Party Transactions
Date of Issue: 09 February 2026

- c. With respect to related party transaction to which the unlisted subsidiary of the Company is a party but Company is not a party, and which is above rupees one crore whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year shall require prior approval of the Audit committee of the Company, if the value of such transaction, exceeds the lower of the following:
  - (i) ten percent of the annual standalone turnover of the subsidiary as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary; or
  - (ii) the threshold for Material Related Party Transaction of the Company
- d. In the event of a related party transaction above rupees one crore, whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, to which the unlisted subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party and such unlisted subsidiary does not have audited financial statements for a period of at least one year, prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company shall be obtained if the value of such transaction exceeds the lower of the following:
  - (i) ten percent of the aggregate value of paid-up share capital and securities premium account of the subsidiary; or
  - (ii) the threshold for Material Related Party Transaction of the Company

The aggregate value of paid-up share capital and securities premium account of the subsidiary shall be taken as on a date, not older than three months prior to the date of seeking approval of the Audit Committee.

- e. For RPTs of unlisted subsidiaries of a listed subsidiary, the prior approval of the Audit Committee of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.
- f. Any subsequent material modification in the RPT, which has been earlier approved by the Audit Committee.

7.2 Board and the Shareholders

- a. All RPTs within the scope of Section 188 of the Act and Regulation 23 of the SEBI LODR Regulations, which are not in the ordinary course of business and not at an arm's length shall require prior approval of the Board.
- b. All other RPTs as referred by the Audit Committee from time to time shall require approval of the Board.
